Board of Directors

Leslie Bethel

Carbondale, Colorado

Leslie is an independent consultant in the planning and design profession. She works with communities across the United States to envision and strategize their futures, often building the places she has planned. Leslie received her education at Harvard University Graduate School of Design. She has developed a process that focuses on public workshops designed to educate and promote community involvement and support for community goals. She has traveled extensively, experiencing the wisdom of indigenous peoples and their cultures all over the world and integrating that knowledge into her work and her life. Leslie lives with her two children on the Western Slope of Colorado.

Caryl Dalton

Vice President

Austin, Texas

Caryl is a psychologist in private practice in Austin, Texas and has been working with children and families for over 30 years. She holds a Doctorate of Educational Psychology from the University of Texas. As the founder of White Hummingbird Consulting, she created the Post Divorce Coaching program as a preventative intervention to help families make a successful transition to this change in their lives. Caryl is a student of shamanism and enjoys traveling and visiting indigenous cultures to learn about their healing traditions.

Kathleen Donohue

New York, New York

Kathleen is a consultant, coach, and facilitator with expertise in the use of feedback technology as a leadership development tool. She has worked in partnership with senior global leaders to manage organizational change for financial institutions and professional services firms. She seeks to make a difference by aligning values, leadership behaviors, infrastructure, and performance metrics around business strategy. She has strong cross-group collaboration skills and works closely with teams to build a world-class culture to express their mission and values, implement effective solutions, and measure results. She is committed to sharing knowledge with indigenous leaders and working to support programs that preserve cultural traditions and practices.

Meave Foley

Northfield, Illinois

Through her travels, Meave has experienced first-hand the wisdom of indigenous people and has found working with them transformational. This experience has inspired her to help find creative ways to help them preserve their traditions and cultures and bring appropriate educational opportunities to those who hunger for
